

Minisink Valley Central School District

The Pupil Personnel Services Office is pleased to announce a special evening presentation for parent/guardians:

“Understanding Special Education: An Orientation for Parents”

This presentation is specially designed for parents of children transitioning to Kindergarten and those who are new to the special education process. Parents will learn about the various roles of members on the Committee on Special Education team, as well as how an Individualized Education Program (IEP) is developed and implemented. Strategies to participate effectively in meetings and resolve concerns will also be reviewed.

 Special Guest Speaker:

Joyce Hawk
Hudson Valley Special Education
Parent Center
Westchester Institute for Human Development

Please join us for this informative presentation.

Date: Wednesday, March 14, 2018
